TREASURES FROM YESTERDAY

Here are some of the items that Osterhoudt family members found in the historic Davie house as they were cleaning it in preparation for the sale to Klemow Inc.:

- A red dress worn by a deceased grandmother, Mollie Cline, who was crowned Ms. Key West in the early 1900s.
- A guest book from the funeral of great-grandmother Susanna Sands, from the mid-1900s.
- A Distinguished Flying Cross from World War II that the late Bud Osterhoudt received in 1945.
